Important Notice for Degrees(Revised)

Extension of Date

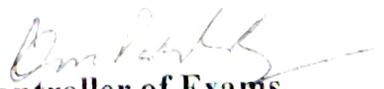

Due to Covid-19 pandemic, holding of Convocation for award of Degrees to the students is not feasible. Therefore, to avoid difficulties to the students who are waiting for their Degrees, it has been decided to release the same without holding the Convocation. Following categories of students are eligible to get their Degrees in the Current batch.

- The students who qualified for the award of PG & UG degrees in the session 2017-2018 and 2018-2019 including Result Later Cases.
- The students who qualified for award of Ph. D degree after 06.10.2018 to 31.08.2020.

List of such students is available on the University Website: bmu.ac.in. The students are required to apply online with payment of Rs.2000/-. They should get a printout of the online application and contact the office of the Dean Concerned within a week to receive their Degrees. In case, any student is unable to receive the Degree personally, his/her degree will be sent through Registered Post. The online application and payment of Rs.2000/- for degree will be accepted upto 30.09.2020 only. Thereafter, the Degrees of this batch will be released on payment of Rs.4000/- upto six months (15.03.2021). Thereafter, the University will not be responsible to preserve their Degrees and in such cases, the student will have to apply for Duplicate Degree.

Important Note: In case any student does not want to get, his/her degree without Convocation on payment of the prescribed fee, he/she may wait for Convocation as and when held. It is also added that the students getting degrees now (upto 30.09.2020) on payment of Rs. 2000/- will be allowed to attend the next Convocation without charging any fee.
